

YOUR CLUB, YOUR COLOURS

The right cricket kit for your team, custom-designed for the female cricketer, by Lacuna Sports.

01 INTRODUCING LACUNA SPORTS

Cricket is becoming ever more popular with women and girls, yet until now the clothing and kit has been exclusively designed for the male body.

Professional female cricketers have had to adapt their cricketwear from the men's styles, and young women starting out in the sport have endured transparent tops and trousers that are ill-suited to the proportions of the female figure.

In 2019, Founder Leigh Burns identified the seriousness of this gap in the market from the experiences of her teenage daughter, excelling at the sport yet not properly kitted out to perform at the level she could. Lacuna Sports was created to fill this gap, and proudly provides female cricketers of all sizes, shapes and ambition with the kit needed to make them feel their best on the pitch. Our Teamwear range incorporates all of our exclusive female designs, features and choice of style, but is customised to your school, club or team colours.

02 ABOUT OUR TEAMWEAR

THE HIGHLIGHTS

Made in Europe by Teamwear specialists known for making high quality performance kit, primarily using recycled polyester from certified European mills. We offer upcycling support for your old kit and equipment, so nothing is wasted.

Our Teamwear has a different pricing structure to our Main Collection, but is competitively priced in line with established suppliers.

We are able to print in any colour. Our manufacturer uses the most advanced nano technology for printing: the ink is transferred deeply into the fibre without affecting the functionality and quality of the fabric. No peeling logos or faded printing.

We offer all our Teamwear styles in a broad range of inclusive sizes so that all players feel able to perform at their best.

We only make what your team needs. Each team order is bespoke for individual clubs and schools. You only get what you need and want, with total flexibility of design and colour.

FOR WOMEN & GIRLS WHO ARE SERIOUS ABOUT THEIR SPORT

Lacuna Sports Teamwear, the first dedicated cricket teamwear collection, designed solely for women and girls, offers the same designs as our core collection, but is made from fabrics suitable for sublimation printing. You will still find all of the design touches and structural consideration that make us stand out, but with the added benefit of it being branded as uniquely yours.

HOW IT WORKS

1. We'll discuss ideas, vision and specifications for your new kit, and conduct a fitting session with your team so everyone finds their favourite style and size.

2. Our in-house designers will start work on your custom kit, sharing multiple concept designs for you to choose from and review.

3. We'll then fine-tune your final teamwear designs based on your feedback, and send to our manufacturer to bring to life.

4. You'll receive your custom designed and fitted teamwear within 6-8 weeks, enabling your team to walk on the pitch feeling their best.
